Bastion Recommences Trading on ASX with Renewed Strategy

On 21 May 2025, Bastion announced that its shares had recommenced trading on the ASX, marking the beginning of a new chapter for the Company under the leadership of a refreshed management team with a new strategic direction.

The Company has appointed a new leadership team, bringing extensive geological, mining and corporate expertise to advance its portfolio of assets. Under the new leadership, Bastion is progressing a strategic review of its existing projects in Chile, Sweden, Australia and Canada to determine the optimal path forward, which may include joint venture partners or asset sales. The Company is also targeting the acquisition of early-stage Australian gold projects.

During the strategic planning and business improvement period, the Company's overheads will be significantly reduced to conserve funds, including:

- No directors' fees paid or accrued until a market capitalisation of $2.6m is achieved
- Review of all contracted services with changes underway
- Relocation of head office in the near term to a low-cost WA address
- Directors working in hands-on roles and utilising personal networks and individual skillsets
- No executive personnel

New Board Composition

The newly appointed Board brings deep geological, mining and corporate experience, with a clear vision to unlock value across Bastion's existing portfolio of international and domestic mineral projects. The immediate focus is on strengthening the Company's financial position, advancing high-potential assets and enhancing shareholder returns through disciplined project execution and commercial nous.

ICE Copper-Gold Project, Yukon Province, Canada

During the quarter, Bastion announced a JORC Code Mineral Resource Estimate (MRE) of 6.43 Mt @ 1.07% Cu for the Company's flagship high-grade ICE Copper-Gold Project¹ in the Yukon Territory, Western Canada.

¹ Refer ASX Announcement of 30 July 2024. The acquisition of the ICE Copper Project was approved at an Extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders held in mid-October 2024 and completed on 18 November 2024.

The new JORC Code (2012) re-estimation confirmed the original foreign historical resource tonnage and grade for the ICE Copper-Gold Project. Bastion reported indicated resources of 5.76 Mt @ 1.09% Cu and inferred resources of 0.67 Mt @ 0.83% Cu at a 0.3% cutoff.

The resource covers 115 drill holes, almost entirely <200m deep, with 92% of the resources classified as indicated. To date, less than 1% of the Project area has been drill tested, with multiple geochemical and geophysical targets providing potential for discovery of additional mineralisation zones.

Eleven (11) priority targets have been identified, with potential for future discovery of additional zones of VHMS mineralisation near the resource and through the properties².

Project Background

The ICE Project (Figure 1) was discovered from follow-up of a highly elevated stream sediment sample in 1996, with the deposit subsequently drilled during 1996 and 1997. The deposit outcrops, with a zone of oxide mineralisation in the northwestern up-dip part of the deposit. Mineralisation is hosted in a sequence of submarine basalts and brecciated basalts, with intervals of chert and mudstone.

The mineralisation is noted to be hosted with a unit of porphyritic basalt. Mineralisation has been located by drilling and in a ground HLEM survey together with a helimagnetic survey over the property. Two principal conductors were identified in the ground HLEM survey, although it appears there maybe three or more conductors present in the mineralised zone, which trends NNE and have not been fully tested by drilling.

Mineralisation consists of massive sulphide, with disseminated pyrite and interstitial chalcopyrite. The more massive sulphide unit extends as a body down dip to the SE, surrounded by lower grade and more disseminated mineralisation. In addition to this down dip extension of the highest-grade mineralisation, there is a NNE extension of mineralisation, which is evident in the block model built from the original assay information.

² Refer ASX Announcement 2nd December 2024, "11 Exploration Targets Identified – Ice Project, Canada Targeting New Discoveries & Resource Expansion"

Low-grade mineralisation may extend to the SSE, whereas in the north the high-grade mineralisation was not completely closed out. Correlation with the HLEM geophysics data suggests that the original mineralisation continues north of the resource and block model, and is likely to lens-out, with the potential for at least one additional lens to develop further north of the existing mineralisation. To the south there are several highly conductive zones, which are targets for future drilling.

Available Information from Historic Exploration

The ICE Project has a significant amount of historical information available, including:

- Soil sampling across the Project at variable sample density, but majority as grid data.
- A ground HLEM survey, which was conducted over the deposit, but shows what is interpreted to be a continuation of the deposit to the north and to the south, which has not been drilled.

There is also interpreted continuation of the conductors coincident with the deposit to the NE and possibly to the east on the edge of the survey.

- A property-wide helicopter EM survey, which identified the deposit and a number of untested HeliEM targets, of which the majority are located along trend from the HLEM survey to the NNE of the deposit.
- A total of 121 diamond drill holes, of which 115 were drilled into the deposit. The other holes were drilled off to the southwest of the deposit on what appear to be a combination of geochemical and geophysical targets. Discussion with Aurora Geoscience geophysicist indicates that the drilling on the HLEM targets has not tested them effectively. Diamond holes were almost all less than 200m depth and drilled from the southeast to northwest, across what is interpreted to be the dip of the deposit, which appears supported by the geology and geophysics.
- 275 density samples from the original hydraulically split core.
- An additional 48 measurements were collected by Aurora Geoscience, using the displacement method. Cores were not coated in wax, as they are generally quite solid and competent.
- An additional 38 measurements were made on pulps from cores that were selected from the re-assaying program. These corresponded to the majority of the samples conducted by Aurora. The majority of results were very similar but 10 of the samples showed significant differences.
- Overall, summing the 275 original samples and 48 additional samples, there are 323 samples throughout the deposit.
- Not all samples were originally assayed for gold. Of the 2,594 samples from the drilling, only 449 samples were analysed for gold. All re-assayed core was analysed for gold and a broad suite of elements.

A full summary of the MRE for the ICE Project can be found on the Company's website.

Exploration Work Permit Granted

Bastion announced it had received consent for a Class 1 Exploration Work Permit from the Ross River Dena Council's (RRDC) Tu Łidlini Lands Department (TŁLD), allowing the Company access for exploration activities at its ICE Copper-Gold Project.

In February 2025, after meeting with stakeholders in the Northwest Territories, Bastion submitted its application for review under the Tu Łidlini Assessment Process (TAP). The Company received confirmation from the RRDC that it is providing conditional consent for the exploration work permit to be granted following recommendations by the TŁLD, subject to terms and conditions BMO regards as industry standard for the locale and reasonable.

Cometa Copper Project, Chile

The project is currently under strategic review with an exploration plan expected to be announced in September 2025.

Gyttorp REE Project, Sweden

The project remained under review with a plan expected to be announced in September 2025.

Chairmans comments:

"The June quarter represented a period of great change in Bastion Minerals. This included recapitalisation via multiple mediums; reinstatement to trading on the ASX; changing of Directors; release of personnel; changing of Co-Sec and CFO; change of address and relocation to Western Australia; settling of various commercial issues; reduction of costs to minimum achievable including no Directors fees paid or accrued; and announcement of a JORC MRE at the flagship ICE project in the Yukon. It was a very busy Quarter!! I must thank my team for the exemplary and professional efforts they have demonstrated and continue to demonstrate. Since assuming the Chair I have also communicated to shareholders via emails and 'phone calls out and responded as queries have arrived. The process has allowed me to build new relationships amongst the co-owners of Bastion Minerals. I am heartened by the response and support from shareholders throughout the register. On the 20 May 2025, BMO released a strategic plan via the ASX platform. The plan is working, and I am committed to continue delivering against its tenets. The September quarter will be as busy as this one but with a greater focus on exploration and growth. All of this in line with our strategy."
