MLG AWARDED 30-MONTH
CRUSHING AND SCREENING CONTRACT WITH NEW MURCHISON GOLD

MLG Oz Limited (ASX: MLG) (MLG or the Company) is pleased to announce the execution of a 30-month crushing and screening contract with New Murchison Gold Limited (ASX: NMG) (New Murchison) worth up to $15 million.

New Murchison is a mineral exploration and development company which holds a substantial package of tenements in the prolific Murchison Goldfield near Meekatharra, in Western Australia.

This agreement is for the provision of crushing and screening services to New Murchison's Crown Prince project, for an initial period of 30 months with a further month-by-month extension for up to six months. Crown Prince is a high-grade gold deposit within New Murchison's Garden Gully Project located 22 kilometres northwest of Meekatharra.

The contract will encompass the provision of a mobile crushing plant with an automated sampling system integrated into the circuit. MLG will operate and service the equipment throughout the contract term, which is expected to commence in August 2025.

MLG's first contract with New Murchison will generate approximately $500,000 per month in revenue for the Company, and follows a recent spate of new contract wins and extensions, including its maiden contract with Rio Tinto and the provision of crushing and screening services to Fortescue Limited.

Managing Director Murray Leahy said: "We are delighted to have been selected by New Murchison Gold to provide crushing and screening services over the next two to three years as they develop their high-grade gold deposit within their flagship Garden Gully Project.

"We continue to actively expand our crushing and screening capabilities, broadening our reach and market presence across our suite of clients in the gold, and iron ore mining sectors."
