8.8.1	Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?
	Answer: The Company is progressing towards the recommencement of gold production activities later this year and expects to generate material cash operating surpluses from its upcoming mining and processing activities from its initial processing campaign which will include the processing of previously mined and stockpiled material.

8.8.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?

Answer: The Company intends to issue further convertible notes to raise additional funds as previously announced as part of its capital raising program. The Company is also progressing other non-dilutive financing initiatives to support its working capital requirements for the recommencement of gold production activities. The Company believes it is highly likely that these financing activities will be successful.

8.8.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: Yes. As noted above, the Company is progressing towards recommencement of gold production activities in the near term which are expected to generate material cash operating surpluses. The Company expects to have sufficient funding available from its existing committed funding and funding initiatives to support its working capital requirements for the recommencement of gold production activities.

Note: where item 8.7 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.8.1, 8.8.2 and 8.8.3 above must be answered.
